WITH THE CHURCHES

The new $30,000 Methodist church will be dedicated, March 17th. The dedicatory sermon will be preached by Dr. Merry, of Louisville, a noted evangelist. The new church is one of the prettiest in the state and one that all Somerset is proud of.—Somerset Journal.

Rev. William A. Humphries, of Hardin county, waived two examination claims and has gone to Camp Taylor for training. He is a married man with wife dependent and a preacher of the gospel, either of which would have put him far back in the classes.

The Danville city council has passed an ordinance permitting each family in the city to keep as many as two hogs during the period of war. The move is made in order to conserve the waste of the homes as well as to make more meat for the people at home and abroad.

At a recent meeting of the building committee it was decided to make some additions to the Baptist church when rebuilding begins. Fifteen feet will be added to the length of the building and another story added. It has also been decided to move the parsonage to a lot facing Vine street and a new brick residence will be built in its place. Work will soon begin.—Somerset Journal.

The Presbyterian church in the United States is preparing for a big "Drive" for all church causes in March. The Stanford church is falling readily into line. On Thursday afternoon a conference of church officers will be held at the First Presbyterian church, Danville. Lunch will be served at one o'clock and the conference will follow. Some printed matter on the subject of Christian Stewardship will be given out this week.

Patriotic Sunday was well observed at the Christian Sunday school last Sunday morning with an appropriate program. Brief, stirring talks on different phases of Washington's life were made by Elder Joseph Balou, C. E. Tate and J. S. Hocker. A flag exercise by five children was effectively rendered. A brief history of the flag was told by Joseph Grimes after which the flag was unfurled, the Boy Scouts circling round and standing to salute, while the entire audience stood, singing "America." The entire program, interspersed with patriotic songs, tied the events of the past with those of today, showing that religion and love for one's country are vitally related.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES

Richard O. Lackey, a former Madison county man, is dead at Canon City, Col.

Mrs. Brent Hudson was fined $60 at Somerset for bringing whisky into local option territory.

Miss Emma Oldham is dead at the home of her uncle, Judge John C. Chenault, at Richmond.

Rice Singleton was acquitted by the Bell circuit court of killing John F. McCoy, an officer, who had gone to his home to arrest him.

The Danville Messenger says that as further evidence of the Danville Tobacco Market being the best in the State, Mr. W. P. Kincaid, of Stanford, the king tobacco buyer, is selling his tobacco over the breaks there. Gov. Stanley has appointed Judge W. R. Shackelford, of Richmond, to preside over the February term of the Woodford Circuit Court, in place of Judge Robert L. Stout, who has been ordered South for the remainder of the winter by his physician on account of ill health.

The Bluegrass Special train, northbound to Cincinnati on the Southern railway, had a head-on collision near Brannon with a work train from Lexington. No casualties resulted, but the engine of the work train was considerably damaged, several cars derailed and the Bluegrass Special delayed for about three hours until the track was cleared. The heavy fog was responsible for the collision.

A. H. Barber, of Springfield, a member of the Deionologian Literary Society won the twenty-second oratorical contest which was held last night. His subject was, "The Victories of War." The second honor went to Mr. W. D. Chamberlain, of Glasgow, a member of the Chamberlain Literary Society. His subject was "The Triumph of An Ideal."—Danville Advocate.

ABOUT CONSTIPATION

Certain articles of diet tend to check movements of the bowels. The most common of these are cheese, tea, and boiled milk. On the other hand raw fruits, especially apples and bananas, also graham bread and whole wheat bread promote a movement of the bowels. When the bowels are badly constipated, however, the sure way is to take one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper.

DOINGS THE COUNTRY OVER

Ford cars have been advanced $90 on the car.

Fifteen people were killed and 25 injured in a wreck on the Southern Railway near Columbia, S. C.

J. T. Quinby, an ex-Confederate soldier and a prominent citizen of Spencer county, is dead at Taylorville.

Mrs. Minerva Jane Pulliam, mother of former Commissioner Keeling G. Pulliam, of Lexington, is dead.

Standard Oil interests have bought a track of 55 acres of land in Lee county for $25,000 and will drill for oil at once.

One American was killed and three wounded in an attack by Mexican bandits on an oil boat at Tampico Wednesday.

An amendment to the Administration Railroad Bill empowering the President to take over all short lines competing with trunk roads was passed by the House.

Frank Beadler was ambushed at midnight at Clay, Ky., by unknown men at Mine No. 7, of West Kentucky Coal Company. Beadler was shot nine times with a pistol and died before aid could reach him.

Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman, the Anarchists now in prison for conspiracy to interfere with the draft, co-operated with German spies in foreign countries, according to letters made public by the Department of Justice.

The Red Cross liner Florizel, from St. Johns for Halifax and New York, with 140 persons aboard, including seventy-eight passengers, was wrecked twenty miles north of Cape Race during a blinding storm. Some 60 of the passengers and crew were saved.

Five American aviators in the United States and France fell to their death Saturday. Three of the aviators were killed at Park Field, near Memphis, one at the Evermore Field, Ft. Worth, and the fifth was shot down in combat over the lines in France.

The scope of control by the Federal Reserve Board's Capital Issues Committee of municipal bond issues was greatly increased by the reduction from $250,000 to $100,000 as the minimum size of municipal issues over which the committee will extend its influence.

Increasing demands for raw materials caused an increase of $286,000,000 in the imports of this country for the first seven months of the fiscal year. Restriction of exports not contributing directly to the prosecution of the war caused a $186,000,000 decrease in exports.

That the administrator of the estate of Mrs. Mary Lily Flagler Bingham will contest the operation of the Kentucky Inheritance Tax Law was indicated in a report submitted by L. W. Botts, vice president of the Fidelity & Columbia Trust Company. The valuation of the vast estate was placed at $65,322,004.19.

Four National Army soldiers are held in the guardhouse at Camp Lewis, Washington, on a charge of treason. The men, it is charged, plotted to kill their officers the first time they got into action in Europe and deliver the American force to the German army. Authorities at Camp Lewis are awaiting a presidential warrant from Washington for the internment of the men as alien enemies. The Judge Advocate General announced that all charges of treason would be tried by a court-martial.

Meatless days in the United States have saved 140,000,000 pounds of beef in four months, the food administration announces. In this period 165,000,000 pounds of beef were exported to the allies, together with 400,000,000 pounds of pork products. The announcement concludes: "If the many people who have assisted in the accumulation of exportable stocks of meat products could receive the expressions of gratitude with which these shipments are now being received in Europe they would feel amply rewarded for the sacrifice."

Appeals were made to the Railway Wage Board not to forget the thousands of railway employees who contribute materially to the operation of trains but are little known to the public. At the hearing yesterday tips to Pullman porters were defended by the general manager of the Pullman company.

Two of Gen. Hale's orderlies who accompanied him to France arrived at Camp Zachary Taylor yesterday enthusiastic over the reception accorded the General and his staff by the French people. It is expected that Gen. Hale will reach the local camp within the next few days.

PATRIOTIC SERVICES AT S. H. S.

Patriotism will not die out as long as it is a part of the educational system of our public schools. Especially is this true of the Stanford school, as any one attending the exercises at the high school building last Friday morning could well see. It was the observance of Washington's birthday, and also flag raising day. Superintendent Caner and his splendid corps of teachers had manifested their patriotic spirit in the preparation of an inspiring program which the children, young gentlemen and ladies, always expressive of their love for country, rendered in a manner well calculated to "Keep the Home Fires Burning." National airs, stories of Washington, bits of history, tributes to the flag, in prose and poem, completed an exercise worthy of the day. The flag raising was under the auspices of the Boy Scouts. These, headed by the color bearer and the three Patrol leaders, supporting the flag, followed by the school and audience, marched to the flag staff, where amid the strains of the Star Spangled Banner, the beautiful flag was drawn to the top and kissed by the breezes of a beautiful day. The audience was dismissed with an appropriate prayer by Rev. Brazelton, and the school given holiday for the remainder of the day.

FISCAL COURT MET MONDAY

The fiscal court had a meeting Monday and the members spent most of the day talking about pikes and how to manage them and keep them in repair. All of the magistrates were present and after much discussion it was unanimously agreed that the pikes be divided into sections of three to four miles and have farmers living on them superintend the work, the court to recommend the work to be done. Quite a number of farmers have already pledged their services to look after sections near their homes and if a sufficient number will agree to do so, the work can be done for much less than it would cost to have a regular road overseer. An advantage of having a number of men look after small portions of the pikes consists in the fact that work can be done when it is found necessary and the overseer will not have to ride all over the county to get to the work. Then too, there would likely be a rivalry among the men in charge of the roads, many of whom would take pride in having their sections show up better than the other fellow's. The I. J. hopes the plan will prove a satisfactory one, for if there ever was a time when road work was needed it is now.

DEATH OF PROMINENT MAN

Mr. Z. Duke died at his home at Dallas, Texas. It will be remembered that he spoke at the Baptist church last fall and many were impressed with his simple, pleasing message. Mr. Duke was not a preacher, but he was a layman who was greatly interested in church work. In his talk at the First Baptist church here he stated that he had started life a very poor boy, but by hook or crook he got enough money to open a small store. He took the Lord in as a partner, he said, and all during his business career he gave a good portion of the profits to churches and other good causes. At the time of his death he had a chain of stores, some 25 or more, and gave the profits of all of those establishments to church work. Thomas D. Newland, Jr., son of our townsman, conducts one of the stores and bears testimony to the good work Mr. Duke has been doing during the years he has known him. Mr. Duke was a very warm friend of Dr. M. D. Early, whose long acquaintance with the good man makes him feel a personal loss in his death.

PIANO BUSINESS GOOD

Mr. L. D. Wilson of The Wilson & Sons' Piano Co., of Muncie, Ind., is spending a few days in Stanford helping Mr. J. L. Beazley sell the high class Wilson & Sons' pianos. Mr. Beazley sold his 18th piano on Monday. This is quite a record in piano sales for a town the size of Stanford. The Wilson & Sons' piano is a beautiful high grade instrument, with a tone that at once appeals to those who are only satisfied with the best. The slogan of the manufacturer is "Each sale creates another," has proven true in thousands of cases.

A HINT TO THE AGED

If people past sixty years of age could be persuaded to go to bed as soon as they take cold and remain in bed for one or two days, they would recover much more quickly, especially if they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There would also be less danger of the cold being followed by any of the more serious illness.

SAUNDERS MADE FOOD ADMR.

Hon. James N. Saunders has been made food administrator of this county and has already assumed his duties. His selection is an admirable one and that he will give the work much of his attention and see that all orders given are carried out to the letter none who know him will doubt. Under the rules of the food administration, no manufacturer or dealer can sell to a retail town customer in excess of twenty-four pounds of flour, or to a country customer in excess of forty-eight pounds and then in each instance, only when the customer buys from him or produces written certificate that he has bought from another a like amount of substitutes which have not been balanced by flour purchase. The substitutes under the act are hominy, corn grits, corn meal, corn starch, corn flour, barley flour, rolled oats, oatmeal, rice, rice flour, buckwheat flour. The farmer may have his own wheat ground, custom grinding, without being compelled to take a like amount of substitutes, but the Government urgently requests that he do so. Until April 30th, slaughtered hens and pullets cannot be sold, and live hens and pullets can only be sold for egg production purposes.

WASHINGTON D. A. R. PARTY

Miss Susan Fisher Woods, regent of the Logan Whitley D. A. R. Chapter, entertained its members at The Princess in a most befitting way for the celebration of Washington's birthday. A delicious salad course was served and the table decorations were flags and miniature cherry trees. The place cards were hatched, tied with red, white and blue ribbon and on each was a question concerning Washington and the days of '76. Miss Sue Taylor Engleman read an interesting article on what was being done with the Liberty Loan bonds, purchased by the D. A. R.'s Delegates and their relatives were elected for the next annual convention at Washington, D. C. An interesting discussion was indulged in during the social hour, comparing the merits of our today's wonderful President and Washington, and it was fully agreed that it would be but a few years until we would have a national holiday, celebrating the birthday of Wilson. The honor guests were Mesdames M. D. Early, J. S. Rice, Robert Benton Woods and Mrs. James H. Woods.

WALTER SELLS THE PRINCESS

Mr. Wallace W. Walter, who has made The Princess one of the most popular eating and drinking establishments in this section of the State, sold out lock, stock and barrel Monday to Messrs. Ernest Previtt and John and R. H. Renfro, of Harrodsburg. The gentlemen run in their home town what is known as the "Blue Ribbon Restaurant" and it is a very beautiful as well as popular place. Mr. John Renfro will be in charge of the new purchase here and that he will run The Princess as it should be, none who know his reputation as a caterer will doubt. Mr. Walter and Mrs. Walter have given their personal attention to the conduct of their establishment and the excellent manner in which it has been managed has been the source of much gratification to their many friends. There is general regret at their selling out, but there is consolation in the thought that they are not to leave the "best town on the map."

HEMP MEETING FRIDAY

The hemp growers of this county will meet at the court-house Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock to take steps toward forming an organization for the purpose of grading, baling and storing the hemp crop. At a meeting of the hemp growers of 10 blue-grass counties at Lexington Saturday meetings were called in each county for the above purpose.

Owsley Walton, son of Col. W. P. Walton, has returned home from the Great Lakes Naval Training School after being given choice of coming here or being quarantined when scarlet fever broke out in barracks there. He will stay here until recalled.—Lexington Herald.

BOOK RECEPTION

On Friday evening at 7 o'clock the Woman's Club will give a reception in the club rooms to which every one is most cordially invited and also earnestly solicited to bring a book for the library. Come and have a good time and help a good cause.

Buying thrift stamps day by day is not a game of chance, it's the silent way in which you say: "God help our lads in France."

"Please find enclosed $3 for your good paper," writes Ed Foster from Liberty.

DR. O'BANNON AT BANQUET

Dr. W. B. O'Bannon, Lincoln county's splendid representative at Frankfort, spent Sunday with Mrs. O'Bannon here. The doctor was one of the Representatives who accepted the invitation to the Washington Day banquet at the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, on the 22nd. He was called on for a talk and gave his hearers a good one from the theme, "The Kentucky Legislature and the Soldier Boys in France." Dr. O'Bannon's remarks were well received and loudly applauded. Asked about the work being done at Frankfort, he said to an I. J. representative: "By Joe we are getting along all right, but as strange as it may seem the 'wets,' as the administration people are called, are trying their best to give the State a bone-dry bill, but the 'drys,' led by Dr. Palmer and Representative Waggoner, of Scott, are trying to put whisky in the drug stores and many other places. It is a strange condition of affairs, to be sure, but we'll straighten it out before we get through, I hope." The doctor thinks like a great many others do that dry leaders, those who get pay for their services, are not desirous of seeing the State dry, because they know that when it is really and truly dry their jobs are gone.

FORMER EDUCATOR SUICIDES

Henry C. Anderson, of Somerset, whose term as superintendent of public schools of Pulaski, expired Jan. 1st, suicided by shooting himself through the temple Friday morning. He had just come out of the law office of Denton & Kennedy, in the Waddle building, and without a word of warning to any one inflicted the fatal wound. He lived less than an hour and was never conscious. Anderson, who was only about 28, was married less than a year ago to a Miss Isaacs, of his county, and she is left to bear the odium of a husband's suicide. The Somerset Commonwealth says that many irregularities have been found in the office of the dead man and the indications are that he was short in his accounts. Experts are going over his books, and the further fact that the grand jury is in session might have caused Anderson to commit the rash act.

HUSTLING BUSINESS MEN

The firm of Severance & Son is composed of sure enough business men. One day last week they were doing business on the South side of Main street and the next day their splendid big stock of goods was being shown the public in the Odd Fellows' building on the North side of Stanford's most prominent thoroughfare. Some hustlers are those Severances.

ARRESTED ON SERIOUS CHARGE

A very prominent and wealthy citizen of this city was arrested Saturday afternoon by Chief of Police George T. Wood on the charge of selling whisky. For the sake of members of his family this paper will not mention his name until after his trial, which was postponed from Monday afternoon until Thursday afternoon, next.

WILL LOSE SIGHT OF EYE

Robert Vanoy will lose the sight of his right eye as the result of a nail he was attempting to drive striking the ball of the member. The accident occurred several days ago, and while the doctors hold out some hope that the sight may not be entirely gone, he can never expect to see much out of it.

AGED MRS. LOVE DEAD

Mrs. Love, an aged woman of the Kings Mountain vicinity, died Thursday and was buried in the burying ground near Jack Murphy's Saturday. She was an excellent woman and her death is the cause of much sorrow in the section in which she had lived so long.

LONGER SIDETRACK AT HEMP

The L. & N. has a force of hands lengthening the side tracks at Hemp. The one on the East side will be extended nearly to the Knob Lick crossing, while the West end will run nearly to where the pike crosses the railroad near James H. Wood's farm.

SOLD HIS INSURANCE BUSINESS

Russell Brown has sold his insurance business at Liberty to W. Sherman Allen, of that place, and has done the sensible thing of moving back to Stanford, from which place he should never have gone.

"Can't do without it, so I send $1.50 for another year's subscription to the Interior Journal," writes J. S. Routen from the West End.

28 MORE MEN FOR TRAINING

Twenty-eight more gallant Lincoln county boys have been added to the number that are being trained for army service at Camp Zachary Taylor, that number having left Stanford at 1:30 Monday afternoon as hundreds of their friends and relatives made them God-speed in the splendid work to which they have dedicated their lives. It was intended that Judge Charles A. Hardin, who is holding court here, should make the boys a talk at the depot, but the special train pulled in earlier than was expected and the young men and their friends were denied the treat that the I. J. knows Judge Hardin's speech would have been. Previous to their departure, the Red Cross Chapter here presented each of the "Sam-mies" with a sweater and the D. A. R. Chapter gave each one a "housewife," a case containing needles, pins, thread, etc. They were all dined at the St. Asaph Hotel and much attention was shown them from their arrival in town until they took their departure. Following is a list of those who made up this increment: Virgil Estes, Charles Dunn, Raymond Noel Sampson, Charles Dye, Herbert E. Thompson, Eugene Wall, Sam R. Gooch, Hugo Schnitzler, Modam Helton, Worth Johnson, Luther Sims, Walter Estes, Foster Smith, Theo. Morgan, Thomas S. King, John Martin Back, Jay See, Vinsor, Chas. Alford, Charles P. Buchanan, Ernest F. Koker, Wm. Lee Moore, Arville Bartley, Carley Emmet, Mobley, Clyde Curtis, Curtis O'Neal Edwards, James Bogie, Clell Waters, Wm. W. Montgomery.

JOHNSON MAKES GOOD TALK

The address of Rev. Andrew Johnson at the open session of the Liberty Service League Friday night was replete with good things. His knowledge of ancient history is remarkable and he told of the events of the long ago.—B. C. and A. D.—with the familiarity of conditions as though they had only occurred a few years ago. Rev. Johnson has read a great deal and retained it; he has traveled all over the country and it has been of profit to him, hence it is not strange that he is interesting in conversation as well as a lecturer. He was introduced by Dr. W. D. Welburn, of the Methodist church, who was very complimentary of him. Rev. Johnson lived in this county for many years and is a son of "Free Silver" Johnson, who is remembered by many of the Lincoln county people as being quite a politician.

COL. CHAS. C. SPALDING HERE

Col. Charles C. Spalding, who spoke on the income tax law at the court-house last week and made the proposition very clear to the many who heard him, is at the First National Bank today and tomorrow and will be glad to further explain the law to those who may not have heard his clear and concise talk at the court-house last week.

MILTON PADGETT DEAD

Milton Padgett, aged 28 years, died in the Kings Mountain section Thursday after a brief illness. He is survived by his wife, who was a daughter of Green Griffin, and several children. The body was held several days awaiting the arrival of a sister from a distance.

HALF DOZEN DOGS KILLED

There were a half dozen or more dogs killed in town Sunday and Sunday night. It is not known who the slayer was or how he slayed, but it took Les Logan a good portion of Monday to drag them to the canine burying ground and lay them peacefully away.

LITTLE DOING IN C. C.

Very little is being done in circuit court. No cases of importance have been tried so far and the chances are very few will. Absence of witnesses and failure of attorneys to answer ready will make the present the dull circuit court in years.

RED CROSS ITEMS

Word has just been received from Washington headquarters that chapters may retain 25 per cent., of each additional dollar by annual members for the purpose of raising their membership in the magazine class.

WIND DID MUCH DAMAGE

The wind storm of last night did considerable damage, blowing down many trees, hemp and corn shocks. A portion of the cornice was blown from Judge T. A. Rice's handsome home on Danville avenue.

THIS AND THAT

The Japanese, according to reliable authority, intend to take action in Siberia at an early date and there are evidences that the Japanese have long been preparing to carry out this move.

Jess Willard, heavyweight champion, when informed that Fred Fulton had knocked out Frank Moran, said he would meet Fulton for the championship if Fulton is willing "to make reasonable terms."

The gravity of the Russian collapse is felt keenly at Washington, but the attitude of the Government is a stronger determination to push the war to victorious end. President Wilson has held a conference with Col. E. M. House, and it is expected that the President again will go before Congress with an arrangement of Prussian brutality in connection with the treatment of Russia.

TO EXPUNGE AND CENSURE

On the claim that he wanted to extend his remarks on "the selective draft," Caleb Powers secured consent of Congress to print them in the Congressional Record. Instead of doing so, however, he devoted his so-called speech to "skinning" his opponent, Judge Robison, of Barbourville. One of the paragraphs is to the effect that the judge had criticized his clothes by saying that when he canvassed the district he wore patched pants and actually had patches put on where there were no holes. Powers denies the charge and says that while he can not dress as fine as the judge, who is a rich banker, he tries to dress respectfully as a plain citizen. He is particularly exact in saying he never had patches where there were no holes, claiming that all he could do was to have patches where there were holes. There was much more of such drivel. Critics of the speech are disgusted with such rot and say it should not be given free printing and circulation at the expense of the taxpayers. A resolution will be presented to expunge it from the Record and have Powers rebuked for taking advantage of a privilege. This is the second speech Powers has made in answer to Judge Robison and franked it over the 11th district. It shows the manner of man he is to those who do not know his real character and the incident should lead to an abrogation of the privilege of having speeches printed at the expense of the government that are never delivered, or at least the adoption of a resolution that no speech shall be printed that deviates from the subject for which the privilege is granted. Nearly every copy of the Congressional Record is crowded with alleged speeches in which rascally members take advantage of the permission to print by using the space for private or electioneering purposes. It is a swindle and an outrage.

Editor Sausley says in the Richmond Register, in complimenting Chief of Police George T. Wood's work, that "bootleggers and evil doers have been permitted to run 'wide open' in Stanford." Mr. Sausley is wrong, as he knew when he penned the lines that he was. No evil deer has ever been allowed to run "wide open" in Stanford, nor will he ever be as long as the citizenry is of the high class that it has been since the writer has known it—"way back in the '70's. It is true whisky has been sold here, but it has not been with nor by the consent of the people and the officers. The fact that a prisoner was liberated last week who had served 280 days for bootlegging and that during the year 1917 hundreds of dollars were collected from those who persisted in the infraction of the law against whisky selling is some proof that the bootlegger has not been given full sway. It is not fair that such a report shall go out about this good town and such misrepresentation will never go unchallenged as long as the Interior Journal is published under its present management. We are surprised that Mr. Sausley, who above all men, should feel most friendly to his old home town, should thus malign Stanford.

The President, at the request of Congressman Thomas, has ordered that Lt. Col. Allen and Maj. Milton Board, surgeons, be tried by court martial at Camp Zachary Taylor for gross neglect of a soldier from Cumberland county, which it is claimed, caused his death, the measles having by neglect produced paralysis and double pneumonia. Man's inhumanity to man makes countless thousands mourn and in this case, if the charges are true, should make the shoulder-strapped fellows feel either the halter draw or the bullets of a firing squad.

It seems that the dregs of the Legislature do not want bone dry prohibition. Those in the House voted to let a man have all he wanted for his personal use, but the Senate, by a decisive vote, declined to concur. If we are to have prohibition, let us have the bone driest kind and take the question out of politics forever. It seems, however, that the political prohibitionists want to keep up the agitation indefinitely. It is their only stock in trade, without which their occupation would be gone.

For the first time in the history of Indiana the Democratic and Republican party leaders have agreed and as a result partisan politics will be laid aside while both parties unite to make the Third Liberty Loan drive in Indiana a big success. Another feature of the coming campaign is the disloyal vote denounced and scorned by both parties.

The Great Corn-Loosener of the Age. Never Fails. Painless.

LIKE AN ELECTRIC BUTTON ON TOES

Tells Why A Corn Is So Painful And Says Cutting Makes Them Grow

Press an electric button and you form a contact with a live wire which rings the bell. When your shoes press against your corn it pushes its sharp root down upon a sensitive nerve and you get a shock of pain.

Instead of trimming your corns, which merely makes them grow, just step into any drug store and ask for a quarter of an ounce of freezone. This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. A few drops applied directly upon a tender, aching corn stops the soreness instantly, and soon the corn shrivels up so it lifts right out, root and all, without pain. This drug freezone is harmless and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin. It

A resolution denouncing the attitude of Senator La Follette was introduced in the Wisconsin State Senate last night. The resolution declared emphatically that the people of Wisconsin "always have stood and always will stand squarely behind the present war to a successful end."

THE LATEST WAR NEWS

Nikolai Lenin, he Bolshevik Premier, and Leon Trotsky, Foreign Minister, have made an abrupt surrender to Germany. They have declared their readiness to accept the Kaiser's peace terms and have sent a delegation to Brest-Litovsk to take up the negotiations.

Another Spanish steamer, the third in less than a month, has been sunk by an enemy submarine. The Maria Caspio, bound for New York, was destroyed in the Atlantic. The crew was picked up by Spanish liner Caspio Lopez y Lopez, which was halted by the submarine, which threatened to sink her also, because she carried cars for a railroad partly owned by French capital. The liner finally was permitted to go on her way.

American guns of the latest type and the heaviest caliber are in service on the American sector in France and on the Italian front, it was announced yesterday by the War Department. The general belief had been that there were few heavy American guns in Europe.

That Chicago packers knew four days before his appointment that Hoover would be Food Administrator was charged by Attorney Francis J. Heney before the Federal Trade Commission yesterday.

Chancellor von Hertling, in the Reichstag yesterday, declared that he could fundamentally agree with the four principles proposed by President Wilson for a mutual exchange of views. The Chancellor asserted, however, that the principles must be subscribed to by all States and all peoples. Regarding Belgium, he said Germany was willing to discuss terms when proposed by the Belgian Government. He expressed the belief that Wilson's message of February 11 may constitute "a small step toward a mutual rapprochement."

The internal situation in Russia continues chaotic. So bad have conditions become in Petrograd that a state of siege has been declared by the military authorities. Looting and other reprehensible deeds will result in sentences of death, it is announced by the Bolshevik authorities. All explosives must be immediately turned in to the authorities on pain of the holders being declared outlaws. Opposition newspapers have been suppressed and other organs have been warned that inaccurate information published in them will lead to the arrest of the editors and their staffs.

Germany is ready to reopen negotiations with the Bolsheviks. Peace it is said, will be granted to Russia provided the territory demanded at the Brest-Litovsk conference be surrendered. This includes all of Cour-land. In the meantime the Germans continue their invasion virtually unchecked, and Petrograd is in imminent danger. To the south Austrians and Ukrainians are marching on Kiev, according to London. This Dr. von Seydler denied emphatically in the lower house at Vienna. At Petrograd Allied Ambassadors are in sympathy with the Bolsheviks and are to aid them.

It is when you have a severe cold that you appreciate the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We were greatly worried about him as the medicine we gave him did not help him in the least. A neighbor spoke so highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that I got a bottle of it. Can you afford to pay less?

For over 30 years Crossett Shoes have stood for unusually good leather—strong of body, fine in grain. That is what has given them their superior wearing qualities.

Today such leather can be used only in shoes costing at least $7.50 to $12.

Men pay more attention to values than they used to. They find that shoe dollars go further in a high-type shoe like Crossetts.

The shoe below is a fine example of Crossett style and comfort. Let us show it to you.
